What does this mean to you?

Since Nutrition Counseling is a covered benefit under many health plans, your employees can take advantage of these services at virtually no out-of-pocket cost. We are simply offering to increase utilization of these existing benefits by making them more accessible through the delivery of our Registered Dietitians

How did we achieve this status?

Our caring, trained and experienced team of Registered Dietitians went through a rigorous credentialing process by each health insurance payer. This credentialing process assures the services will be delivered by a highly competent health care professional.

Why does this matter to you?

We made the process of offering onsite Nutritional Counseling, to every employee, simple. There are no contracts or minimum commitments. We take care of it all, from onboarding, to program promotion, to payer billing. Getting started is just a call away.
